7 Nations Back U. S. Rejection Of Malik Demand

Won't Consider Any Deal To Settle Korean Question

LAKE SUCCESS, Aug. 3—(AP)—The solid opposition of seven nations today doomed Russia's latest move to seat Red China on the Security Council as part of a peace deal for Korea.

Six countries—Britain, France, Ecuador, Cuba, Norway and Nationalist China—followed the United States' lead yesterday in insisting that the council discuss the Korean question before considering admission of Communist China to the council, and that the two questions be treated separately.

American chief delegate Warren R. Austin led the fight to reject any "deal" for settlement of the Korean war. He declared the U. S. will never agree that the end of North Korean aggression depends on any other issue.

Watch India's Move

As the third day of debate began today on the procedural tangle, council delegates watched with particular interest to see what India would do.

The Great Asiatic nation hasn't the power to alter the outcome, but her strategic position in the East gave added significance to whatever stand she takes when her delegate, Sir Benegal N. Rau, speaks today on the agenda proposed by Russian delegate Jakob A. Malik, the council president for August.

The council is still tangled in debate over what it should discuss, and in what order. Some delegates hoped to get a vote on the question today.

Malik has insisted on the program he presented:

1. To consider seating the Chinese Communists.

2. To consider a "peaceful settlement" in Korea.

Calls U. S. 'Aggressor'

In demanding this agenda, he has denounced U. S. military action in Korea as an act of aggression.

The U. S. is pushing for consideration first of its previously submitted proposal denouncing North Korean defiance of the U. N. and asking member nations to help localize the war.

India in recent weeks has found herself siding with both the United States and Russia on one aspect or another of the Korean question.

India's prime minister Jawaharlal Nehru himself initiated the proposal, in notes to Moscow and Washington, to seat Communist China on the Security Council as a step toward ending the Korean war. The Kremlin approved the plan; the United States rejected it.

Two days ago, India supported Malik's attempt to read the Chinese Nationalists out of the council merely by declaring their delegate was present illegally and represented no nation. The council defeated the move.

City Hall Dispute Still Hot Issue

Of the traffic proposals hashed over and compromised by the council safety committee and the Chamber of Commerce traffic committee last week, one agreement is certain to bring a cry of protest from the Salem Historical Society.

Both committees concur the old city hall should be torn down immediately after the new one is occupied, so that the site may be used for a municipal metered parking lot.

The Historical Society wants the 100-year-old building preserved, and a few weeks ago met with representatives of the Ohio State Archaeological and Historical Society to discuss the possibility of restoring the structure. A decision by the state society's board was promised the local group by 30 days.

The safety committee of council rejected the chamber proposal to rent as much of the field west of Reilly stadium because the rental price is too high to make a parking lot impractical.

Lucas Hints Of Heavy Taxation

Tax Bill Readied For Congress Action

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3—(AP)—Senate Democratic Leader Lucas said today that, although there may be no immediate tax action against profiteering, the American people can be assured "nobody is going to get rich at the expense of the G. I."

"We are going to take the profits out of war," the Illinois senator said.

Lucas made his statement as Democratic leaders prepared to ram through congress a tax-boasting bill, probably near the $5,000,000,000 size President Truman proposed, and without an excess profits levy.

An immediate excess profits tax was not recommended by the President, Lucas said, in the interest of speeding the "first installment" tax hike to passage.

He predicted it will come later, with stiff rates on abnormal business profits. And he added: "If we get into a real war, we're going to have the most drastic taxes this country has ever seen. This tax bill is just to get ready for the big one."

Meanwhile, the senate finance committee moved swiftly to put the tax bill in shape for quick congressional action.

In its first session behind closed doors, it formally junked the house-approved bill to cut by $1,010,000,000 the excise taxes on such things as furs, jewelry, cosmetics and movie tickets, and approved instead a $55,000,000 excise increase.

It voted:
A 10 per cent manufacturers' excise on television sets, to collect $42,000,000.

A 10 per cent manufacturer's levy on home freezers, for another $8,000,000.

A boost in the slot machine tax from $100 to $150 a year for each machine in operation.

Plans Being Made For County Fair

LISBON, Aug. 3—Preparations are already being made here for the 105th annual county fair under the sponsorship of the Columbiana County Agricultural Society.

Opening day is set for Sept. 12. J. Howard Sinclair, secretary-treasurer of the association, announced today that there will be four big days and nights of the fair this year, beginning Wednesday and continuing through Saturday, with Tuesday the opening day devoted entirely to arranging and placing exhibits.

The fairgrounds are now being made ready by a crew of workmen, and buildings and fences are being repaired and painted for what is planned to be the biggest fair in recent years, Sinclair stated.

Applications for exhibits are being received. Harness racing on Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday has been scheduled and a fine program of free attractions is being arranged, Sinclair added.

2 Pedestrians Hurt In Mishap

Walks In Front Of Car On S. Ellsworth Ave.

A Salem man and woman, both pedestrians, were injured when they were struck by a car while crossing S. Ellsworth ave near Railroad st at 11:18 p. m. Wednesday.

George Cristo of Liberty st extension suffered contusions of the right leg, possible fracture of the left shoulder and shock, while his companion, Maggie Sykora of 404 Wilson st sustained a possible fracture of the left ankle and shock. They were admitted to the City Hospital where their condition today is reported as good.

Police said the two pedestrians were struck by the car driven by Therman G. Baker, 19, of R. D. 4, Salem, when they walked in front of his car from between two parked cars at 411 S. Ellsworth ave.

Water Users Pay In Prompt Manner

One bright side of the water situation lies in the fact that customers are evidently coming through with payment of bills.

B. V. BeVier, water superintendent, reported to council this week that as the result of the increase in rates, the sum of $40,085.37 had been received by the department of the $41,942 billed, representing a collection of approximately 99 per cent.

He said that a total of $160,000 should be realized for one year's billing, based upon the engineer's estimates of increased rates.

Bids will be advertised next week for the construction of the dam for the new reservoir in the East Cold Run project.

Man, 92, Arrested In Tavern Burglary

A record for the oldest prisoner ever held by the county was probably set this week, with the arrest of Alexander Young, 92, a Negro brick plant worker from East Palestine.

He pleaded guilty before Justice Earl Spaulding Wednesday to a charge of breaking and entering and was bound over to the grand jury on $1,500 bond. He was escorted to the Mahoning County jail today.

Young was caught inside Brown's tavern in East Palestine Tuesday night by Proprietor Jerome Brown. The latter told police that Young chased him with a double-edged axe.

Brown wrested the axe from him and put him in his car to take him to the police station. En route, Young whipped out a razor and slashed Brown, police said.

He wore handcuffs during his trip to Youngstown today.

Symington Asks Full Controls For President

Senate Committee Hears Chairman Of Resources Board

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3—(AP)—The government's top economic mobilizer urged today that President Truman be given a free hand in putting any wage-price-rationing controls into effect.

W. Stuart Symington, chairman of the National Security Resources Board, made a special trip to the Capitol to discuss the matter. He talked behind closed doors with Chairman Maybank (D-SC) of the senate banking committee.

Maybank told reporters Symington emphasized that a standby plan for imposing wage, price and rationing curbs should let the President decide when or whether they should be used.

Symington declined to discuss the matter with newsmen. On the other side of the Capitol the house appeared set to give the President powers to control virtually every phase of American life. As demands mounted for across the board controls to curb inflation and what is needed in the Korean war, the only question appeared to be the form the presidential powers would take.

Symington talked with Maybank as the senate banking committee resumed discussion of a proposal which would deny the President discretionary authority in putting wage price rationing curbs into effect.

The committee began considering yesterday an automatic device for invoking such curbs when the cost of living reaches a certain point. A formula still is being worked out.

Maybank said Symington did not directly oppose the automatic proposal, but concentrated on the idea of giving the President a free hand.

Two broad choices confronted the house as it began the task of outlining Mr. Truman's grant of authority.

One was a Republican-backed bill offered by Rep. Kunkel (R-Pa.). The other was an expanded administration bill rushed into the house yesterday by Chairman Spence (D-Ky.) of the house banking committee.

Both provided for stand-by authority to apply roll back controls over prices, wages and rationing as well as allocations and defense priorities. They differ on other matters, Kunkel's bill omitting Truman proposals for controls over credit and commodity trading.

The decisive test on the two opposing approaches was due before tonight, but with a final vote put over until tomorrow.

Hoperick, Not Coppock, Faces Driving Charge

Robert D. Hoperick of R. D. 3, Salem, arrested Tuesday night for reckless operation, posted a $50 bond yesterday for his appearance before Mayor Kenneth Hixcox of Lisbon at 1 o'clock today.

He was erroneously reported as Robert Coppock yesterday, the name Lisbon police provided. It was news to Coppock when he learned yesterday he had been arrested for reckless driving. He checked with Lisbon Police Chief Dalton Pike and discovered the offender's name was Hoperick.

Leftist Group Battles Police

"Peace" Marchers Are Cause Of N. Y. Riot

NEW YORK, Aug. 3—(AP)—Two thousand left-wing "peace" marchers, banned from staging a Union Square rally, battled 1,000 police late yesterday in fist-flinging brawls that led to 13 arrests.

The demonstrators waited until the home-going rush hour to make their defiant move.

"We want peace—open up the Square," the marchers chanted as they suddenly formed ranks among the throngs going home from work.

Union Square—a mile and a half south of Times Square—is the traditional scene of New York soap box oratory. When the mounted police bore down on the demonstrators they shouted "Cosack."

The mounted policemen rode their horses onto sidewalks. Fist fights broke out. Several injuries were reported and at least one window was smashed.

Two sign-waving demonstrators were removed from electric light poles by police and a fire department hook and ladder company.

The police detail spent an hour breaking up the demonstration. Most of the marchers arrested were charged with assault or disorderly conduct.

Ohio Telephone Co. Increases Rates

Rate increases in 134 exchanges of the Ohio Associated Telephone Co. went into effect Aug. 1 according to E. M. Owens, commercial manager of the New Philadelphia-Dover district.

The increase will be paid in this area by subscribers in East Rochester, Malvern, Minerva, North Georgetown, Paris, Winona, Hanoverton and Homeworth.

The rate on residence one-party lines has been raised from $4 to $4.25; on two-party and multi-party lines there is no change. Greater increases are in effect for business telephones.

Boy Badly Bitten By Dog In Lisbon

LISBON, Aug. 3—Five-year-old Paul A. Zellers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Zellers of the Thomas rd was badly bitten by a neighbor's dog Wednesday afternoon.

The dog, owned by Robert Daugherty, bit the dog's right leg. Five stitches were required to close the wound. A month ago Paul's twin sister, Paula Jean, had been bitten by the same dog. Authorities said they did not think the dog has rabies.

Ohio Boards To Examine 11,000

Only 2,860 Of That Number To Be Drafted

COLUMBUS, Aug. 3—(AP)—Selective Service will call up at least 11,000 more young Ohioans for physical examinations to meet the October call for the induction of 2,860.

Col. Clark Wahl, Selective Service personnel chief, announced the new prospective call for pre-induction physical examinations.

The October examinations will bring to 22,000 the number of Ohio youths examined to meet a two-month call for inductees.

Originally, Ohio's call for inductees in September was 1,140. That called for physical examinations for 5,000 men.

Then, the September induction total was raised to 2,850. Selective Service then called for physical examinations another 6,000 men.

That means Ohio Selective Service boards must examine 11,000 men in September for induction of 2,860 October.

Physical examinations have been held for a week in Ohio.

"I wouldn't want to give any percentage on rejections until we have had at least two months' experience," said Colonel Wahl.

World War II physicals rejected 40 per cent. Physicals during the post-war induction period of 1948-1949 rejected 75 per cent, principally because the men examined already had been rejected in World War II.

Tide Of Battle May Have Turned

Observers See No Further Withdrawals

U. S. EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS IN KOREA, Aug. 3—(AP)—The day of the greatest withdrawal by United Nations forces in Korea brought the strongest evidence that the Korean Communists advance may be checked and held on the line of the defenders' choice—the Nakdong river.

The Allied withdrawal to the Nakdong discouraged hard-pressed American forces while the newly arrived Second Infantry division and the First Marine division were being deployed into position.

On the new consolidated front the Americans and South Koreans face the Communists on virtually equal terms in division strength—for the first time.

There were elements of five American divisions and five South Korean divisions facing an estimated one or two North Korean divisions.

The North Korean Reds no longer may be wholly free to concentrate locally stronger attack forces with power to flank and encircle out-numbered Americans.

May Isolate Enemy
There may even be an opportunity for an American attack.

Salem Man Slightly Hurt In Car Mishap

Richard Liebhart, 23, of Perry st suffered slight injuries in one of two area accidents investigated Wednesday by the state patrol.

Liebhart received lacerations of the arm at 11:35 p. m. yesterday when his car, going west on Prospect at extension, slid across the Georgetown road and into a culvert. The car was badly damaged.

No one was injured in a car-truck mishap at noon Wednesday on Route 7, 1 1/2 miles north of the junction of Routes 14 and 7.

Patrolmen said the car driven by John Sukaluk, 34, of Ambler, Pa., was passing the truck operated by Robert Zimmerman, 26, of East Palestine. Sukaluk was forced to cut back into the right lane of traffic by oncoming vehicles and his rear bumper caught the front of the truck's fender.

Sukaluk overturned on the right side of the road. The car has heavy damage while the truck was slightly damaged.

Big Pershing Tanks Led Way For Americans

Front Quiet Except For Penetration By U. S. Battalion

TOKYO, Friday, Aug. 4—(AP)—Allied troops for the first time approaching but still inferior to the 10 division strength of the Red invaders, rolled forward for the showdown fight for South Korea today with big Pershing tanks.

Elements of two fresh American divisions—the First Marine and the Army's Second Infantry—joined three other American and five South Korean divisions along the shivering front.

Frontline predictions were the Marines and Second Infantry troops would be in battle by tonight.

The lines stretched from the general south coast area of China northward along the winding banks of the Nakdong River. The Allied troops had quietly withdrawn from former positions as much as 10 miles over a three-day period.

Enemy In groups
A during U. S. 20th Infantry battalion, on a reconnaissance sweep with five tanks, penetrated 20 miles behind the Communist lines near Chongju Thursday.

It discovered a big enemy building for the battle for the plains leading to Pusan, the junction of U. S. port 40 miles east of the front.

The tank force then fought its way out of the enemy lines, with some losses, and secured a regimental command post from destruction by guerrillas. The one enemy maneuver had failed and was in small numbers towards Pusan, port city 25 miles west of Pusan.

Even Withdrawal, Associated Press correspondent at the front, said the American force proved the enemy line could be penetrated by a tank-fitting tank force.

Whithead said the battalion almost reached burning Chongju, penetrating rear elements of the Reds.

It was the deepest penetration made yet by an American force into the Red lines and surprised the enemy in a roaring road battle.

Documents Seized
The tank force ran through machinegun fire all the way out and brought back captured enemy documents, maps and Russian-made equipment. The loss was considered important by intelligence, Whithead reported.

Four Sherman tanks and four armored cars were abandoned by the Americans as they withdrew to rear positions four miles southwest of Chongju, about 40 miles west of Pusan.

The Americans pulled out after the Reds had cut behind them and cut off the tanks. The Red Koreans stopped the first tank and the last one with immobilizing tactics. The tank crews and most of the armored cars escaped.

The Americans then turned back to the north and south and fought back to the main U. S. defensive position near Wonsung village, about 10 miles northwest of Chongju.

Enemy Attack Failed
Associated Press Correspondent G. H. F. King quoted Maj. Gen. John E. Church, new 4th division commander, as saying the daring tank force was "fortunately" blocked.

"Our attack stopped there from getting underway," Church said.

Left Behind, Associated Press correspondent at U. S. Eighth Army headquarters in Korea, said the big withdrawal of Allied troops in the west and north put the defenders on a line of their choice, the Nakdong river.

Columbiana

Police Receive Wage Increase

Town's Parking Meters Collect $527 In July

COLUMBIANA, August 3 — Council, at its meeting Tuesday evening, confirmed Mayor E. L. Calvin's appointment of William McGuckin as No. 2 patrolman and raised the pay of McGuckin and Edward Keck, No. 1 patrolman, from $195 to $215 a month. The pay of Chief R. G. Millen was raised from $245 a month to $250 a month to equalize the pay of department heads.

McGuckin received a temporary appointment six months ago as a special patrolman. It was conceded that the patrolmen were underpaid. All other wage scales remain unchanged. The new wage rates are effective Sept. 1.

Sherman Hostetter of Enon Valley, Pa., was before council with a garbage collection proposition, whereby he would agree to collect garbage and rubbish, including ashes, for $2 a month, or garbage alone for $1 a month. He has had experience in that kind of work in Youngstown. Council took the matter under consideration, as the present agreement does not expire until October.

Mayor Calvin reported $781 in fines collected during July, the highest of any month this year. Of this, $202 was from highway patrol cases, and the remainder went into the town treasury. Chief Millen reported that the take from the parking meters was $527 during July, a high average for the limited number in use here.

Council decided to go along with the board of affairs, which is having a linoleum covering put on the floor of its office in the city building. The same covering will be put on the floor of the police department at a cost of about $130. The entire bill will be a little over $400. Clifford Orr of Columbiana has the contract.

Chief Millen reported that the state highway patrol will help handle the crowd when Mills Bros. circus exhibits here Tuesday afternoon and evening, Sept. 5. Boy Scouts will handle parking at the circus grounds.

Invitations were extended city officials by the National Rubber Machinery Co. to attend the annual picnic of its employees at Mill-Pic Park, between Columbiana and New Waterford, next Saturday, and the picnic of Stark Lodge No. 73, Fraternal Order of Police, at the Saxon picnic ground in Salem next Wednesday.

Quigley reported that he believed it feasible for the municipality to patch some of the worst places in Firestone Park drives this fall.

Council discussed the project of seal coating the streets listed at the preceding meeting, and in order to get the legal advertising done so that contractors may be able to go ahead by the middle of September, adjournment was taken to 8 p. m. next Tuesday.

FORTY-FIVE were present at a picnic of Helen Henderson Past Matrons and Patrons' association of Columbiana Chapter, O.E.S., at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Lyder at Signal Tuesday evening. Mrs. Lena Hart, Mrs. Gertrude Lodge and Mr. and Mrs. John Sittler were the committee. PANORA Lodge of Odd Fellows will hold a business meeting next Tuesday evening.

Noted Over 1949

NEW YORK, Aug. 3—(AP)—American corporations are making money faster than ever before, but new war taxes may cut back the 1950 total to well below record size.

A compilation by the Associated Press of earnings of 450 corporations in virtually every field of business shows profits were 43 per cent higher in the second quarter of 1950 than in the same period last year.

The year 1948 stands as the record-breaker for corporate earnings, and 1949 was only slightly below. Thus the second quarter this year is running well ahead of the 1948 record.

Higher corporate taxes for defense needs plus an excess profits tax would cut back 1950 earnings considerably below the 1948 record. Earnings also would be held down by rationing and price fixing.

The 43 per cent jump in second quarter profits to $1,625,040,257 brought earnings of these 450 corporations for the first six months to $2,865,306,259. That is a gain of 24 per cent over the first six months of 1949.

There are some who believe the second quarter may stand as high tide in the profit movement. Even though many corporations now are working at top speed as a result of the war, their increased sales may not produce higher profits because of greater taxes and higher costs.

Senate Votes Prison Terms For Hoarders

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3—(AP)—Prison sentences and $10,000 fines for hoarders and black marketers were voted by a Senate committee late Wednesday as Congress pressed swiftly toward action on economic mobilization legislation.

The anti-hoarding section of the committee's bill says:

"No person shall accumulate (1) materials in excess of reasonable and normal demands of business or home consumption, or (2) materials in short supply for the purpose of resale at prices in excess of prevailing market prices which have been designated by the President as scarce materials or materials the supply of which would be threatened by such accumulation."

Violations could bring penalties of up to $10,000 and a year in prison.

BINGO GAMES APPROVED
CHARDON, O., Aug. 3—(AP)—The American Legion post here has been given authority to allow a Cleveland concern to conduct bingo games in its hall. City officials yesterday approved a contract for the games. Previously, they had halted them until it could be shown the proceeds would be used for charitable purposes.

SPRINGFIELD, Aug. 3—(AP)—Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Ramey, who moved here last May, led a rather quiet life until the Korean war began.

The Rameys discovered that

MILITARY ORDERS FIRST

CANTON, Aug. 3—(AP)—Military orders had top priority over all production schedules at Timken Roller Bearing Co. today. The firm's president, William E. Ummstadt, made this clear at a special meeting of officers. He also has authorized a seven-day week in any department deeming it necessary because of the rush of business.

U. N. Offensive Might Hit Manchuria Line

SOMEWHERE IN KOREA, Aug. 3—(AP)—A foreign diplomatic source here gave some support today to foreign minister Ben C. Limb's statement that the United Nations offensive, once it starts, will not stop short of the Manchuria border.

A diplomatic observer said U. N. forces probably would have to go beyond the 38th parallel—dividing line between North and South Korea—"to disarm the aggressors."

He said Communist war criminals held responsible for the present fighting would have to be arrested and tried.

Further, this source said, restoring the 38th parallel as a boundary line would leave Korea economically disoriented and Republic of Korea subject to another attack from the Communist north.

He suggested the final decision on how far the U. N. offensive is to be carried would be made by President Truman and that the majority of the U. N. would support his view.

Civil Defense Pledged Transportation Aid

COLUMBUS, Aug. 3—(AP)—Representatives of all forms of transportation yesterday pledged to give Ohio's civil defense director their 100 per cent cooperation in the event of enemy bombing of the state.

Director William E. Warner said he received the pledge at a meeting of the men who would know most about how to evacuate people from devastated areas.

He said the representatives would survey all their transportation and manpower resources as soon as possible.

The group included representatives of rail, bus, air and motor freight firms.

Spending As Usual

SENATOR DOUGLAS of Illinois, who has been snubbed in a fight to save a measly $5 in a $32,504,000,000 appropriation bill, will be interested in an idea from C. Emory Glander, Ohio tax commissioner.

Glander shares the belief that spending as usual makes no sense in wartime. Speaking of Ohio, though his remarks also should apply to the federal government, he says:

"I am convinced that our major fiscal problem is that of controlling increasing expenditures, rather than raising additional revenue or changing our basic tax structure." Speaking of government in general, Ohio's tax commissioner thinks that higher federal costs and taxes caused by war must be offset by drastic economy.

Senator Douglas and a few others have been trying to do something about economy in Washington, but spending as usual is still the rule on the Potomac. Everybody else is supposed to get braced for wartime sacrifices, but the politicians in Congress aren't having any sacrifices, thank you.

Senator Douglas proposed a 60 percent cut in the pork barrel itself—the legislation providing money for river and harbors. When this was sidetracked, substitute cuts of 50, then 40, then 25 percent—and finally just a flat five bucks—were proposed. All were howled down. In other words, the U.S. Senate isn't saving any money. It is interested only in raising taxes.

Senator Douglas could borrow a copy of Ohio Tax Commissioner Glander's statement about controlling expenditures, instead of sweating all the wherewithal out of taxpayers. It wouldn't make any impression in Washington, but it would make a whale of an impression throughout the country with a congressional election coming up and a thumping tax increase, too, voter-taxpayers are going to be very impressionable from now on.

Physical Infirmary?

GEORGE BENDER is on firmer ground than Attorney General Duffy when he challenges the latter's ruling that Ohio voters who cannot read and write are entitled to receive help at the polling places next November.

The question has been raised in connection with the ballots to be used in Ohio this fall. The party symbols of the eagle and rooster will be gone.

Candidates will be grouped according to the office they are seeking, instead of according to parties, an illiterate voter will have a bad time of it, unless he can memorize a few words like Democrat, Republican and the names of his favorite candidates.

The attorney general is of the opinion that illiterates can be helped under the same law which voters with physical infirmities are entitled to receive help from near relatives or election judges. But Mr. Bender doubts that illiteracy is a physical infirmity. As Cuyahoga County chairman of the Ohio Republican party, he suspects it is no more than an electoral infirmity which will cripple machine politics in Cleveland's bossed wards.

There is only one reason under Ohio law for helping an elector with his ballot—physical infirmities. The law plainly says that "assistance shall not be rendered for any other cause"—not certainly to help Cleveland Democrats pile up majorities to offset the downstate Republicans.

A Proposition To Make

IF the Soviet Union tells its man Malik to do what he is expected to do as presiding officer of the U.N. Security Council his antics could be fatal for that organization.

Public opinion in the United States will not tolerate the use of the United Nations as a sounding board for the Kremlin lies. It will not tolerate the use of the Security Council as a parliamentary bear pit to bait their government.

The issue between the United States and the Soviet Union is past the parliamentary stage. The war in Korea, no matter how thickly surrounded with half-truths, misrepresentations and pious hopes, is between the Communist conspiracy bossed from Moscow and the United States, the only nation strong enough to challenge it to a showdown.

Malik has come back to Lake Success not because he and his government love the United Nations. They have a proposition to make. They will let the United States off the hook in Korea if the United States will knuckle under to them on recognizing their puppet government in China. From the Kremlin's point of view, that would be a deal.

But this is not ward politics or diplomatic pillow-fighting. This is a showdown on human dignity. There can be no compromise with evil under the auspices of the United Nations. For it to suggest such a thing would give the United States no choice but to abandon that organization forever.

True To Form

By PETER EDSON

Truman And GOP Reverse Fields

CONSIDERABLE politics is being played by all concerned in the new defense planning program.

President Truman is being severely criticized for proposing what his critics consider only half-way measures to deal with the Korean war. They say that he isn't proposing a big enough tax increase, that he isn't asking for enough defense money, and that the economic controls he wants Congress to enact aren't nearly tough enough to deal with the present situation.

This is an entirely new line for administration opponents. Heretofore, they have claimed that he wanted to tax too much, spend too much and control too much.

As a matter of fact, the administration's new defense program now before Congress looks like a complete change in the President's political strategy. The President is now consulting more with congressional leaders, asking their advice instead of just telling them. His defense program is therefore based on what he feels he can get passed now, in a hurry with minimum difficulty.

In the past, the President has always been 'way ahead of Congress. He has been the leader of the Democratic Party. He has wanted more civil liberties, more social welfare, bigger government programs than Congress has been willing to enact.

POLITICAL justification for this has been that it was this program for things like a FEPC, health insurance and low-income housing that got the President re-elected in 1948. If he had compromised and been willing to take only what the more conservative Congress had been willing to give him, he would have had a program even less progressive than Governor Dewey's. From a political standpoint, this might have led to a Democratic defeat.

The President apparently wants to stick to this 'way-out-in-front leadership, as a long-range proposition. He would probably never admit for a second that he had abandoned any of his Fair Deal. In dealing with the Korean war situation, however, the President is up against another problem in practical politics.

The election is not too far away. Congressional and senatorial candidates are jittery about what the war may do to them, in all but the traditionally solid southern Democratic or northern Republican districts.

The President naturally feels that he must have Democratic majorities in both houses of the next Congress. So he proposes a safe middle-of-the-road program.

Actually, the President is being attacked from both sides of this road. Republican House leader Joe Martin of Massachusetts and Senator Taft of Ohio feel that the President's defense program is too tough. Followers of Bernard Baruch, who wants stand-by price control and rationing legislation enacted now, feel that the President's program is too soft.

THERE ARE other good, practical political arguments for not advocating price and rationing controls at this time. In the first place, there is no machinery set up to administer and enforce them. In the second place, Democrats may well remember that one of the principal reasons they lost control of Congress in 1946 was the unpopularity of OPA.

In the President's midyear economic report to Congress last week, still another line of reasoning is advanced. It is based on a fear that overexpansion of defense production now would lead to a war boom. This war boom would lead to inflation. And too much inflation would inevitably be followed by collapse.

The remembrance of even the slight economic decline of the past 12 months, when unemployment rose to 4,000,000, still seems to haunt some Washington economic and political planners.

What the President therefore proposes is a program that will take up the reported 5 per cent slack in industrial production, further build up productive capacity for a greater defense effort at a later time, and absorb the surplus manpower now available so as to cut down unemployment to one million.

In other words this looks something like a defense effort to produce full employment and not much more—till after election. It is obviously only a stop-gap mobilization program.

The President himself says that he will ask for further tax increases after election. A fair bet would be that he will ask for bigger defense appropriations and tougher economic controls, too.

Flays Sabbath Desecration

The News: "Remember the Sabbath, to keep it holy." Exodus 20:8.

Who said that? The same God who said, "Thou shalt not kill; Thou shalt not steal; Thou shalt not bear false witness; Thou shalt not covet; Thou shalt not commit adultery. Who said it? God said it. The nation has come to a time when it must turn its attention to a general moral tuning up.

If I correctly have interpreted the movements of history I am persuaded that God cannot use nor can He long bless a people that becomes a nation of Sabbath desecrators. Instead of the church crying out against this sin it has in many places turned God's holy day into a holiday; substituted revelry for reverence, games for God, dissipation for devotion. In the place of a day of wholesome meditation, we now have a day of wholesale murder on the highways.

The Sabbath was made for men, but not to do with as he pleases. Man is still in a world law. The law of fluids properly used, quenches man's thirst; abused, drowns man. The law of heat, used, warms man; abused, turns his home and him into ashes. There is as truly and as operative the law of the Sabbath. In the very beginning God said of the Sabbath, "It is a perpetual ordinance. It is no temporary device, but as eternal as the law of homicide, of theft, of falsehood.

America has traveled fast and far and furious from that day of remembering the Sabbath day and keeping it holy, to this day of Sunday swim parties, softball games, bridge teas, and golf tournaments. Fine substitutes for God's house on God's day! Jesus said; "Let them alone: they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind both shall fall into the ditch. Matt. 15:14.

Before taking that last leap into a Sabbathless America, we may wisely pause to recall that France made that experiment. By government order, for one year and two months, no observance of the Sabbath by any one was permitted. Result: lawlessness and licentiousness swept the land like a murky sea. And in those 14 months there were twenty thousand more divorces than in previous five years.

For her own self-preservation France was compelled to restore the Sabbath.

Emerson said, "Sunday is the core of our civilization. This is a Christian nation. The proper observance of the Sabbath is part of the fundamental law of the land. Ball parks filled, golf courses crowded, theaters overcrowded, road houses filled, beaches jammed and one-third of the churches with locked doors and darkened windows on Sunday night, and others attended with a mere hand-full. Come on you church members who are physically able get out to the house of God and the man of the street will come to see this strange sight. A new America would be born—reborn. If we lose the Sabbath we have lost the soul out of civilization. Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy.

Counter Attack

Cost of 'Military Housekeeping'

By DAVID LAWRENCE

MEMBERS of Congress are asking what happened to the $50,000,000,000 spent for the "cold war" in the last four years and why more of it wasn't spent for weapons and combat troops.

Senator Johnson of Colorado, Democrat, and members of the house have placed in the "Congressional Record" an explanation which was made by the staff of "U. S. News & World Report" in a lengthy article in a recent issue. The Defense Department has since issued a table of expenditures, but it is based on "obligations" rather than cash payments. This means that a backlog of many millions more was available for aircraft procurement but the money wasn't used.

In brief, the magazine's survey, based on cash outlays for the four fiscal years, shows that "overhead"—often referred to as "military housekeeping"—took $2 out of every $3 spent. To quote from the analysis:

Health To You

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D.

Protect Sight Against Glaucoma

IT is believed that there are about 20,000 people in the United States who are completely blind and 150,000 who are blind in one eye as a result of glaucoma. This is particularly tragic because it could be prevented.

When treatment is begun early, the sight can be saved in nearly all cases. There are medicines available which are extremely effective in most cases of acute glaucoma.

True the drugs may have to be taken for a long time but this is a lot better than losing the eyesight. Sometimes an operation is necessary to preserve sight. The several operations used for glaucoma all have the purpose of making new paths for the drainage of the eye fluids.

Some doctors like to divide glaucoma (except those types coming from injury or disease elsewhere in the body) into four varieties: the acute inflammatory, the chronic inflammatory, the "absolute" and the chronic simple type. The acute inflammatory type of glaucoma is largely restricted to people between the ages of 35 and 70 and is somewhat more common among women than men.

The most characteristic sign is increased pressure within the eye itself. This leads to a hardening of the eyeball. The exact cause is not known.

An attack usually begins with severe pain in one eye, slight swelling of the eyelids with watering of the eyes and infection of the eyeball which looks like a general inflammation of the eye.

There is, of course, great loss of vision and the increased hardness of the eyeball can usually be felt easily. The pain is extremely severe and is often felt all through the head. The hardness of the eye is caused by blockage of the flow of fluids within the eye so that liquid accumulates in the eyeball.

The other types of glaucoma are really different stages of the same condition. Absolute glaucoma, for example, is the final stage of glaucoma which has failed to yield to treatment. In this type, medicines are not of value and surgery is necessary.

Eye specialists also recognize secondary glaucomas which are not caused directly by blockage of the fluid drainage but to some other disease process either in another part of the eye or elsewhere in the body.

Because of its great danger to sight, glaucoma is a disease which must not be neglected. Each patient must have the special care which his particular case demands.

Failure to follow advice or to continue conscientiously with the medicine or other treatment recommended may result in blindness. Treatment should be begun just as soon as possible.

"TWO THIRDS of all military spending has gone for services performed, not for expensive weapons or supplies bought. That includes pay, travel, telephone bills, transportation costs, rents, pensions. . . .

"Only $1 in $7 since the war has been spent on arms of any kind. One in 16 has gone for equipment other than aircraft. Out of $50,000,000,000, about $4,000,000,000 was invested in aircraft, $3,100,000,000 for all other equipment—guns, ships, trucks, radar, new weapons, machinery, and noncombat equipment such as furniture, typewriters and passenger automobiles.

"Spending on combat equipment has been less than enough to replace worn-out items. No new tanks have been bought; only a few World War II leftovers have been remodeled. Buying of new weapons has scarcely begun—most are in the planning or testing stage. No big artillery guns, rifles, machine guns or new naval guns have been purchased.

Deadly new "skyscraper" anti-aircraft guns have been developed, but none bought. No new navy ships have been ordered, only a few completed and remodeled. Even the $4,000,000,000 spent on big bombers and fighter planes has not replaced the number of planes worn out during postwar years.

"On weapons alone, spending over four postwar years totaled only $600,000,000. That's less than the amount spent on military travel, half the cost of shipping military freight, and barely twice the amount spent for rent and utilities at military installations. Construction, largely of housing on defense posts, cost half again as much as the total spent on new weapons.

But what did the $50,000,000,000 buy in terms of war strength? The answer is that the number of fighting divisions has dropped from 17 when the "cold war" began in 1946 to 10 divisions now. The amount of combat equipment has grown smaller. Manpower has been cut from 1,891,000 to 1,003,000 men in the army and the air force before the Korean outbreak.

THE NUMBER of air groups has dropped from 52 to 48. The air force and the navy have bought 8, 684 new planes, which is less than the number that wore out in the same four years, cutting the number of planes on hand and in storage from 47,500 to 30,000. Most of the new combat-air equipment money has gone into big, long-range bombers and fast jet fighters. But output is only at the rate of 215 aircraft a month, compared to 1,350 a month before Pearl Harbor in 1941.

As for the navy, it has 245 combat ships in operation compared to 291 four years ago. Manpower has been cut from 985,228 to 379,900.

It was "military housekeeping" that took most of the money. About $18,700,000,000 of the $50,000,000,000 went to pay noncombat service men and civilians, with only $6,200,000,000 for the men in the combat units.

Also, of the $8,000,000,000 spent on supplies, only about a fourth went to combat personnel. Various service costs added another $5,500,000,000 and pensions and other outlays took another $3,600,000,000.

"Total charges for housekeeping," says the survey, "may be computed at $34,700,000,000 of the $50,000,000,000. That's more than $2 out of every $3 spent."

THE FOREGOING picture tells why so many more billions have to be spent now. The administration's theory was that a small combat operation—some B-36's and fast fighter planes and a few atomic bombs—would stop the next war almost before it got underway. Nobody figured on the kind of war the other side might have up its sleeve.

But it would be a mistake to say that what was spent was wasted. What was spent sets up a base for expansion and for superimposing more and more combat units. As for readiness to fight, this unfortunately cannot be said to have been achieved. The planners thought of 1952 and 1953 as the years when they would be ready, but the Soviets—wisely or unwisely from their viewpoint, as the future may tell—have alerted America to expand and mobilize now.

Gook Suit

By HAL BUTTE

It Saved One Yank's Life

IN KOREA
AN 18-YEAR-OLD American soldier, wearing the white pants and white shirt of a Korean, stumbled freely into a command post. A group of doughboys saw him and began to cheer at their own good naturedly.

"Where'd you get the gook suit, kid?" one called.
The young soldier—Pfc. James Cannon of Medford, Mass., grinned shyly at them and then nudged wearily into headquarters.

There he reported that he was the only survivor of a squad of eight men trapped in Kuchang during a battle where the Reds seized control of that central bastion of the western front.

He said his seven comrades were cut down by machinegun fire trying to break through enemy lines and that he escaped across the mountains after trading with a South Korean refugee.

"We were trapped behind a brick wall in the city," Cannon said.

"We decided the only thing to do was to run for it rather than surrender. They had us surrounded."

"FOUR OF the fellows were caught by machinegun fire before we reached a small stream at the base of a hill. Our corporal had been wounded. I tried to drag him behind a rock."

A North Korean came up on Cannon from behind. A South Korean soldier rushed the northerner and killed him by knifing him through the throat and chest.

"I don't know where that South Korean soldier came from," Cannon said. "I just looked up and he was there."

Cannon and the South Korean soldier then took off up the hill separately.

"There was a lot of sniper fire and I was the only one of our squad to make it to the top," he said. "Once I looked back and saw another North Korean soldier come up and bayonet our corporal."

"On the other side of the hill I met a refugee and traded clothes with him."

"I don't think he was too happy about it—but I couldn't understand what he was saying."

CANNON SAID a South Korean villager hid him over night under the porch of his home and brought him six raw eggs the next morning.

"I could only get three of them down," Cannon said. "That's all I had to eat, except a watermelon I borrowed."

Other friendly Koreans guided him back to a command post. Cannon seemed none the worse for his experience.

"All I brought out with me," he said, "was my dogtags, a packet of matches, a few cigarettes, and—this."

He reached in his shirt pocket and pulled out a medal of the blessed virgin Mary. (AP Newswire)

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO—President Coolidge does not believe there is particular danger of a coal strike Sept. 1 and thinks it unlikely that a special session of Congress will be necessary to deal with any contingency arising.

Covelskie not only rubbed it on but used carbolic acid for the massage when he returned to his ex-home with the Senators and beat the Indians in Cleveland, 9 to 1. It was the great Pule's 13th victory.

Whimsical and dainty paraisols are brightening the landscape. Very fashionable are flowered crepes to match summer frocks.

TEN YEARS AGO—President Roosevelt will conduct a new style campaign by transmitting his platform mostly through the press and radio, while Wendell Willkie will follow the traditional routine and stump the country.

Germany turned radio propaganda guns on the British public, warning of the death and destruction it may face if it persists in refusing to take Hitler's "final" road to peace.

Lack of North Korean anti-aircraft fire and lack of North Korean combat planes have permitted the U.S. B-29 superfort bombers to do two missions they were never intended for—low-level bombing and ground strafing.

Cost Of Arms Key To Spending Rise

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—(AP)—Rep. Albert J. Engel (R-Mich.) offers this explanation for the high level of U. S. defense spending since World War II.

A modern jet fighter plane with spare parts now costs $632,000. Before World War II, a fighter could be bought for $28,800.

A heavy bomber costs $4,000,000, medium tanks $400,000 each. Before the last war a medium tank cost $30,000; a twin-engined bomber, the "heavy" of its day, $123,000.

"Our procurement program of 432 planes cost about $27,000,000 in 1937," Engel told a reporter today. "That would buy seven bombers at today's prices."

Some of the price increases is due to inflation, Engel said, but the bulk of it must be charged up to installation of delicate and costly equipment like radar.

Engel is the ranking Republican on the armed services subcommittee of the house appropriations committee now working on the new $10,000,000,000 military appropriation measure asked by President Truman.

PLAN MEDICAL BUILDING

WARREN, Aug. 3.—(AP)—Construction of a $250,000 medical arts building will start in about two months, the Thomas Realty Co. announced today. The building, to contain 30 offices, is expected to be completed next July.

New-Type Tanks In Design-Stage

World War II Models Used In Korea

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—(AP)—American troops will have to fight the holding phase of the Korean campaign with World War II tanks, some of them improved since 1945.

They may get some really new tanks by the time the embattled Eighth army can shift from the defensive and start the long way back to the 38th parallel.

This is the substance of what congressional watchdog committees will hear when the army is called up to explain how the Korean crisis caught the United States in the transition period between old and genuinely new armor.

Gen. J. Lawton Collins, army chief of staff, stated in a speech on Feb. 27 that "except for prototypes we have not purchased a single new tank since the end of the war."

In a report for the last half of 1949, Secretary of the Army Gray said that three light units of the "postwar tank family" were in the final steps of completion prior to an exhaustive series of tests.

In his February speech, Collins said that the army had the prototype of a new medium tank and "designs" for a heavy tank.

Collins then emphasized that the army would not build any heavy tanks until it was "sure that we cannot knock out the heaviest of heavies with the improved guns and ammunition of our new light and medium tanks."

Since February, the army is known to have placed an order for a limited production of the new light tank, known as T-41. It is these tanks that could be produced in sufficient numbers to play a part in future phases of the Korean war.

In the meantime, American troops battling in Korea are getting more and better tanks than they started with one month ago. Pictures have been published showing General Pershing type tanks moving to the Korean battlefield. The Pershings are a considerable improvement over the older and less maneuverable tanks that accompanied the first U. S. units from Japan to Korea.

DuPont Responsible For Making H-Bomb

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—(AP)—The government today apparently gave the DuPont Company top responsibility for developing the hydrogen bomb.

An Atomic Energy Commission announcement provided that hint.

AEC said only that the big chemical firm has been selected to design, construct and operate new facilities to produce materials for atomic weapons or fuels potentially useful for power purposes.

Company officials at Wilmington said "the project is of vital importance to the security of the United States."

AEC said the new plants will be of "advanced design and their operation will provide new knowledge that will speed the process of the atomic energy program."

Where the new plants will be located has not yet been decided. DuPont and government experts have been looking for a site, expected to cover some 200,000 acres.

Bill Introduced For Drafting Of Doctors

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—A bill looking toward the possible drafting of doctors was introduced in the House yesterday.

Sponsored by Rep. Saylor (R-Pa.), the measure would require doctors, dentists and medical technicians aged 45 and under to register with draft boards.

If called up, the medical men would serve 21 months.

The military services—especially the army—have a shortage of qualified physicians.

Treasury Plans New Currency Issue

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—(AP)—The Treasury is figuring on printing a lot more money—to replace worn-out bills.

President Truman sent to congress yesterday, with his endorsement, a request of the budget bureau that $3,375,000 be appropriated to do the job.

"Currency stocks are at a dangerously low level," the letter said, "and unless the output can be increased the government may find itself unable to replace its worn-out currency."

The paper itself will cost $375,000. The remainder is for salaries and other printing expenses.

First of the Fine Cars in Value

Even Wiser than He Seems

PLAINLY, here travels a man wise in the ways of fine motorcars.

You know that, by the four Ventiports and the rich sweep of chrome which mark his car as a ROADMASTER.

You know it, should you trail him on the highway, by the smooth lift of the big Fireball power plant at his toe's command, by the obvious levelness of the ride he enjoys, the swift ease with which Dynaflo Drive solves his traffic problems.

What is not so plain from what you see is that here also is a man very wise in what today's dollar should buy!

For this man has all that a fine-car owner can ask for—brilliant performance, a ride without equal for gentle softness, finger-easy handling, abundant room all around him, styling that is easily the most distinguished on the highway.

Yet he paid considerably less than comparable merit costs elsewhere.

He found fewer extra charges in his delivered price, with such things as Dynaflo Drive, foam rubber cushions, windshield washers, electric clock, even non-glare rear-view mirror included in the price.

If you know fine cars, it won't take fifteen minutes behind a ROADMASTER wheel to see that here is one of the finest.

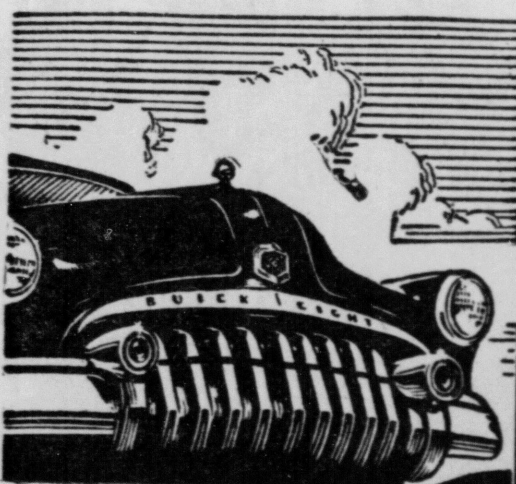

If you have inquired about prices, a single glance at the delivered figures establishes this as the big buy of the field.

Why not make both checks—especially since your Buick dealer will be glad to arrange a trial run in a ROADMASTER any time you care to call on him?

Only Buick has Dynaflo Drive* and with it goes:

HIGHER-COMPRESSION Fireball valve-in-head power in three engines. (New F-363 engine in SUPER models.) • NEW PATTERN STYLING, with MULTI-GUARD forefront, taper-through fenders, "double bubble" taillights • WIDE-ANGLE VISIBILITY, close-up road view both forward and back • TRAFFIC-HANDY SIZE, less over-all length for easier parking and garaging, short turning radius • EXTRA-WIDE SEATS cradled between the axles • SOFT BUICK RIDE, from all-coil springing, Safety-Ride rims, low-pressure tires, ride-steadying torque-tube • WIDE ARRAY OF MODELS with Buick by Buick.

*Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on SUPER and SPECIAL models.

FOUR-WAY FOREFRONT—This rugged front end (1) sets the style note, (2) saves on repair costs—vertical bars are individually replaceable, (3) avoids "locking horns," (4) makes parking and garaging easier.

A SNIP OF the scissors and a little ingenuity can transform "hand-me-downs" for children into garments which have both style and individuality.

One of the most common "hand-me-down" problems is that of changing a small boy's bobby suit into a dress for his sister. It's solved by first snipping off the crotch tab, then cutting away excess fabric and finishing the hem.

Since little girls like fitted waists, a gather can be placed at each side with nylon elastic.

The clever touches can come from scrap-bag remnants which can be used to make a three-quarter apron, contrasting kick pleats with bolero to match, or a tiny peplum with matching cap sleeves.

One small dress made from such a suit (left) utilizes a remnant of gingham for added gores on each side of the skirt. Loops were made using the original buttonholes at the waist. The shirt and skirt were sewn together, making a one-piece dress which got a gingham sash.

A second suit in plaid gingham (right) was given eyelet embroidery to trim suspenders and make-believe pockets, after the crotch tab was discarded and hem finished off.

Daily Dozen

By BOB DIXON

- THE July issue of the magazine "Golfing" carries an editorial which should interest all players and those members of the local club in particular.
- It points up the advantage a small community club player has over his municipal brother. You can get to your small town club in five or ten minutes, the article says.
- In the city, the golfer has about an hour's driving through heavy traffic to get to his course. Then, when he gets there he finds that the game is getting slower.
- The municipal courses are invariably crowded and it takes over four hours to complete 18 holes. "... about a half hour of wasted time that might better be spent in the locker room washing the trap sand from the towels."
- The article suggests that more nine-hole twilight tournaments might lure players to the course in the evening, rather than piling up all the matches and open play on weekends.
- That idea sounds good to us. The evening playing hours (5 until 8:30) are the most pleasant of the day. It is often cool and comfortable, in direct contrast to the stifling early afternoon hours.
- We've played a number of rounds on municipal courses in the East and failed to enjoy them. On one course near New York, we discovered the play so heavy that the tees were completely devoid of grass. You teed off in a cloud of dust. The greens were badly worn, too.
- A former Cleveland resident emphasized the heavy play on the large public courses by telling us recently that one course he knew of handled more players in a single weekend than the Salem Golf Club does all season.
- That may sound impossible, but not when you realize it's a 36-hole course, opening early in the morning. With play that heavy, three foursomes would play through you if you stopped to light a cigarette.
- "Golfing" magazine analyzes the game by saying it probably gives more complete relief from the rat-race of living and has the best recreational value, next to sleep, of any popular pastime.
- However, we don't agree with the above unless the game is played leisurely. It isn't the same if you have to hurry. Too many players regard golf as an "18 holes or nothing" game.
- It's too nice out on that green course to rush. The idea, anyway, is to shoot a low score—not set a new time record. Besides, when you play only nine holes, it's less embarrassing to say you had a 48 than to confess you shot a 96.

Back To Work

By GAYLE TALBOT

UNCLE Mike Jacobs says that if Joe Louis can make a comeback, he can, too, and that he expects to be right in there juggling the tickets if Joe fights Ezzard Charles in September.

Mike explains that when he "retired" because of a serious illness a few years back he retained, as sort of afterthought, a vested interest in any fights Louis might undertake in his declining years. Mike says he has a contract to prove it.

The International Boxing Club, which hopes to carve the Louis-Charles melon, can't seem to recall any such contract with the old ticket wizard. A spokesman for the cartel said he was almost certain no such document existed.

"Would you," he was asked, "like to bet that, if Mike says he has a contract, that he doesn't have one? Can you recall Mike having made any serious legal fumbles over the years?"

"Well, no, when you put it that way," replied the spokesman thoughtfully. "All I'll say is that I can't imagine Uncle Mike handling the ticket sale personally—running up and down those steps the way he used to."

By coincidence, no doubt, Steve O'Neill, the angry manager of the Boston Red Sox, is not the first American League pilot to charge that the Cleveland Indians employ binoculars to pick off signals from the score board in Municipal stadium.

Jack Onslow grumbled about "the same thing last season when he was with the Chicago White Sox. He had several players on his roster who had performed for the Indians the previous year, and it was assumed they had blown the whistle."

To complete the binocular circuit this writer seems to recall having heard that the Detroit Tigers discovered the tonic effect of high-powered glasses back in 1940, when they won a pennant.

As the story went, pitcher Tommy Bridges, a mighty hunter in the off-season, just happened to have his rifle "scope out to the bullpen one day and was amazed to find that they brought the opposing catcher right up in his lap, so to speak."

The Dodgers are caught in a switch on Rex Barney, the meteoric young man who hurled a no-hit game only two seasons ago.

He apparently has gone to pieces, his confidence shot along with his control. Of the last seven batters he has faced, six drew walks and the seventh hit a home run.

The National League champs are said to be ready to give up on him, but if Branch Rickey finally makes the big decision he will have to let him go for the waiver price of $10,000. He could have gotten a reported $75,000 for the speedballer less than two months ago.

Dillinger Happy

By OSCAR FRALEY

BOB DILLINGER must be rated today as baseball's most optimistic player.

He thinks it's a break being sold by the last place Athletics to the last place Pittsburgh Pirates.

"Maybe it does sound funny," the 31-year-old third baseman chuckled, "but that's the way I feel about it. Pittsburgh is a good baseball town and the Pirates draw much better than the Athletics have been drawing. And you feel more like playing when you know more people are watching."

Dillinger, a better-than-average major league player, shrugs off his apparent destiny to remain with bottom division clubs. The three-time stolen base champion of the American League started out with the lowly St. Louis Browns and looked for a good year with the A's this season.

"The A's pitchers always gave me plenty of trouble," he exulted when he was sold to the Athletics. But the A's, figured to be in the thick of the American League pennant race, folded miserably. "That pitching failed, and that's the whole answer," Dillinger insisted.

The slender six footer looked little like a major leaguer as he made these observations. Thick-lensed glasses nearly hid his blue eyes and his relaxed body appeared almost frail. It's a different picture on the ball field.

There the placid expression is gone. A cud of tobacco juts out on his jaw and the indolence is replaced with a wiry readiness.

Currently he is plagued with a pulled tendon in his right leg and it cost him much of the speed which allowed him to steal 82 bases during the last three seasons.

Cautious of his remarks about the A's, whom he just left, Dillinger is happy to be with "a nice bunch of guys" on the Pirate club. For him it is a reunion with Ralph Kiner, with whom he played semi-pro ball in Pasadena, Calif.

"Even then Kiner could blast the ball," he related. "At the park where we played, there was a spot marked on the fence where he had cleared it with a king-size homer. When somebody would ask how far Dillinger hit 'em, they'd point out a tuft of grass—just back of second base!"

Doby Cracks Three As Indians Defeat Nats

Larry Misses Record By One

Lemon Cards His 17th Victory; Hits Homer

(Associated Press)

SOMETIMES it's there when you swing and sometimes it isn't. Tonight it was there most of the time.

That was Larry Doby's explanation of how he hit three home runs last night to lead the Cleveland Indians to a 11-0 victory over Washington's Senators.

Had he driven out another homer in his last two trips to the plate, he would have equalled the major league record.

But reliever Jim Pearce walked him the next time and Elmer Singleton struck him out on his last time at bat. Conrado Marrero had served up all three home run pitches.

Only four other players in the big leagues have had as many homers in one game this year: Bobby Doerr of the Boston Red Sox, Duke Snider of the Brooklyn Dodgers, Wally Westrum of the New York Giants and Andy Pafko of the Chicago Cubs.

In addition to almost equalling the record, Doby's smashes put him back on top in the American League batting race with a .350 average, one point more than George Kell of the Detroit Tigers.

The Indians' victory came on a superb three-hitter by Bob Lemon and left the Tribe virtually tied with New York's Yankees for second place. The Yankees are two games behind Detroit and three percentage points ahead of Cleveland.

Lemon, who now has 17 wins and only four losses, has taken nine games in a row—the longest streak in the major league this season.

HE ALLOWED only one runner to advance past first after the opening inning and helped out his cause by hitting a four-bagger. Joe Gordon also homered for the winners.

Idle today, Cleveland will open a three-game series with New York tomorrow night. Bob Feller is to pitch the opener with Early Wynn and Lemon starting the other two.

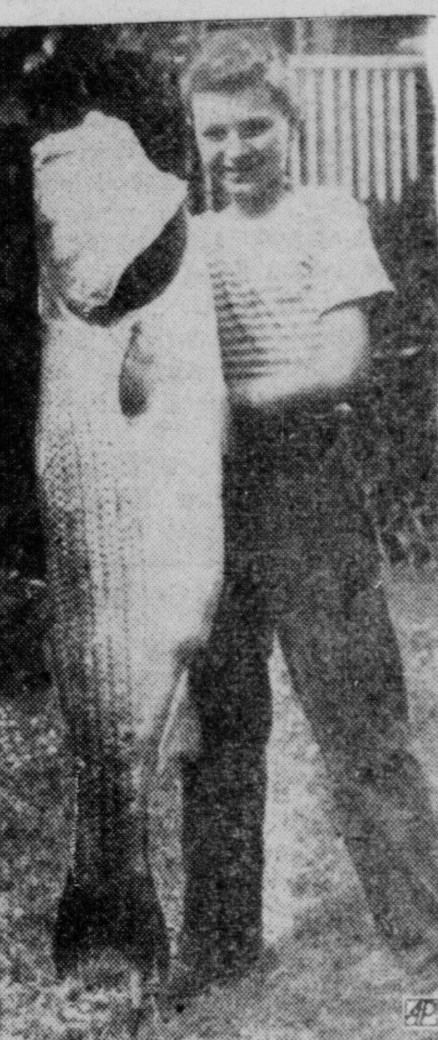

Gene Bearden, Tribe hurler purchased by Washington for the $10,000 waiver price, said he intends to "start all over again." Although he has only a 1-3 record this year, Bearden was picked by Manager Bucky Harris of the Nats to open Sunday against Detroit.

Maybe Red Rolfe had a hunch about Hal White. Maybe he was just plain desperate with Art Houtteman on the shelf. But hunch, desperation, luck or shot-in-the-dark, the Detroit manager's move was a touch of genius.

White, an obscure refugee from the bullpen, gave the Tigers' pennant hopes a shot in the arm yesterday with a brilliant two-hit shutout of New York, 4-0. That's why the Tigers are two games out front in the American League.

Yesterday the 31-year-old righthander faced only 31 men. Singles by Gene Woodling in the third and Johnny Mize in the fourth marred his no-hit bid. White did a job at the plate, too, driving in what proved to be the winning run with a second-inning single off Allie Reynolds.

Despite White's fine effort, the Tigers have no relief. The Yankees, clinging to second place by three percentage points, must be faced again this afternoon. And Cleveland, also two games back, becomes a more serious threat each day.

ANGLER'S DELIGHT. Edmond Couture, 11, holds the 52-pound striped bass, which was caught by his father Ross from his bass boat off Newport, R. I. The striped reported to be the heaviest catch by a Massachusetts angler this year, measured 53½ inches in length with a girth of 29½ inches.

THE BOSTON Red Sox made it 15 out of 16 over the St. Louis Browns, rallying with three in the ninth for a 9-8 edge. Walt Dropo's single, following a two-run double by Vern Stephens, did the job for the Sox.

Elmer Valo hit for the cycle with a single, double, triple and homer for Philadelphia in a 10-3 win over Chicago.

Emory (Bubba) Church boosted the Phillies' National League lead to 3½ games with a 2-0 decision over Cincinnati's Willard Ramsdell.

Brooklyn moved into second place on some timely hitting by Jimmy Russell against his old Pittsburgh mates. Russell, batting righthanded against Lefty Bill Werle, hit a two-run homer to tie the score in the ninth. Batting left-handed against righthander Murry Dickson in the 10th, Russell won the game with a single, 5-4.

Boston's Johnny Sain clicked off his 15th win to hoist the Braves into third place over St. Louis with a 4-3 decision over the Cards.

The New York Giants climbed all over Chicago for a double win, 11-1 and 8-6 despite three homers by the Cubs' Andy Pafko in the second game. The Giants have won 15 of 18 from Chicago this season.

HOMEWORTH WINS GAME

The Homeworth girls softball team won a tight 13-12 victory over Leetonia Wednesday night at Copacia's field in a league game. J. Stoffer of Homeworth rapped four hits for the winners, and Tortora had four for Leetonia.

It was Homeworth's fourth win of the year and they took it by tallying the winning runs in the last inning.

The South Side Sunocos meet the Salem Red Caps tonight.

Tommy Byrne, erratic Yankee southpaw, recently tied the single game record for hitting batters. He hit four Athletics.

When Joe DiMaggio was 17 he played three games as shortstop for the San Francisco Seals.

Salem Loses To Portsmouth

Meet Zanesville In Morning Game Today

Fighting now for their lives, the Salem Legion crew was scheduled to face Zanesville at 9:30 this morning in the state Junior Legion baseball tournament at Columbus.

If the locals get by Zanesville this morning, they'll play another team this afternoon at 2, following a drawing at noon. Bob Theiss will pitch the morning game, with Bob Coy going in the p. m. tilt.

After losing their third start Wednesday by a 6-3 count to Portsmouth, Salem can't lose another game and remain in the tourney. They are in the losers' bracket now, along with Dayton, Defiance, Cincinnati and Zanesville. Still undefeated are Galion and Portsmouth.

Jim Cosgarea pitched yesterday and allowed 10 hits. Salem collected six off the Portsmouth hurler. Salem committed four errors.

Portsmouth broke on top with two runs, but Salem came back to tie it up with single tallies in the first and second innings. The winners went ahead to stay with a run in the third and two in the seventh. Both added a run in the ninth.

Columbus, Warren and Cleveland teams were eliminated Wednesday. Only three games are slated today. Galion-Portsmouth, Salem-Zanesville and Dayton-Defiance. Cincinnati drew a bye.

A phone call from Coach Chet Brautigam revealed that he is confident of beating Zanesville. He said that errors cost his club a victory yesterday. Some of the players are still nervous, he said, but he hopes they'll snap out of it today.

Coaching Experts To Teach At Toledo All-Star School

TOLEDO, Aug. 3 — (AP) — North and South stars of Ohio high school football will gather in Waite stadium Monday to begin practice for the fifth annual Ohio High School All-Star game Aug. 18.

The game will climax a five-day coaching school, which is expected to attract 300 Ohio mentors.

The coaching clinic — showing steady growth in popularity — will have an all-star faculty, director Frank Pauly said today.

On the teaching staff will be Wes Fesler of Ohio State University; Jack Mollenkopf, Purdue University line coach; Bob Snyder, Toledo University; Jim Aiken, University of Oregon; Len Casanova, University of Pittsburgh; Fritz Crisler, University of Michigan; and Rollie Bevan, U. S. Military Academy, West Point.

Fesler will lecture on "new innovations from the single wing — running and passing." Fesler's Ohio State Rose Bowl champions use the single wing as the basis of their attack, but are expected to do some experimenting with the Faurot-T formation next fall.

Three former Ohio high school coaches are on the faculty. Mollenkopf formerly coached at Toledo Waite High school. He'll discuss "differences of individual play of the positions according to the various defenses—four, five, six, seven and eight-man line."

Aiken, who formerly coached at Canton McKinley, Findlay and Toledo Scott high schools, will talk on "changing offense to meet varying defenses."

Bevan formerly coached at Dayton, Youngstown and Toledo High schools. He is scheduled to discuss "Prevention and Treatment of Athletic Injuries."

Snyder will talk on "Quarterback and Center—Ball Handling—Strategy." Casanova is to tell the coaches about "Relation and Correlation of Running and Passing Game." Crisler is down for a rules explanation.

The All-Star game will be between selected Ohio seniors of last season from the northern half of the state against a similar team from the southern half.

The North team is coached by Bup Rerrick of Canton McKinley and Augie Morningstar of Mansfield; the South team by Jim McDonald of Springfield, assisted by Tiger Ellison of Middletown.

1,024 Golfers Vie For Amateur Title

NEW YORK, Aug. 3 — (AP) — One thousand and 24 golfers will compete next week for 200 permits to play in the National Amateur golf championships at Minneapolis later this month.

Thirty-five sectional qualifying tournaments will be held next Tuesday. A thirty-sixth will be held at Salt Lake City on Monday.

Charles Coo of Oklahoma City, the defending champion, and eight other assorted champions and ex-champions complete the field for the all-match-play 36th annual National Amateur at the Minneapolis Golf Club Aug. 25-26.

The ex-champions who are exempt are Willie Tammes (1939 and 1940) of White Plains, N. Y.; Stanley (Ted) Bishop (1940) of Boston; Richard Chapman (1940) of Philadelphia, N. C.; Harrison R. Johnson (1939) of Minneapolis and Charles Evans, Jr., (1938 and 1939) of Chicago.

Tam Golfers Go Out At Dawn

Heavy Entry Causes Revision Of Schedule

CHICAGO, Aug. 3.—(AP)—The $75,000 Tam O'Shanter golf jubilee became a milk wagon derby today. The main batch of 250 pros was forced to tee off at daybreak.

There was such a last minute rush of entries that Promoter George S. May had to revise his schedule for the first two days into a dawn-to-dusk affair.

With the exception of exempted players who were automatically awarded berths on the basis of past records, the hordes of less fortunate pros were to tee off at the unheard-of hour of 6 a. m. While roosters were crowing they started off on an 18-hole qualifying jaunt for 56 places open in the All-American tourney bracket.

So large was the field that extended qualifying trials were also set for tomorrow morning. The 56 qualifiers and 20 hand-picked pros begin 72-hole medal play for the All-American pot of gold Saturday.

Meanwhile, the women and the men amateurs open fire today. In all, more than 400 players were ready to uncork the biggest bombardment in golf history.

After today's early birds got started, the nation's best women pros and amateurs followed in their first round of tourney action. The bumper to bumper procession is expected to develop into a race against nightfall.

All of golf's shotmasters except Ben Hogan were on hand. Favorites include Tam's own representative, Lloyd Mangrum, who is shooting for his third consecutive All-American title; the sensationally rising star, Jack Burke; British Open Champion Bobby Locke, the 1947 Tam tist making his initial start on American fairways in a year; Sam Snead, and Jim Ferrier.

Snead, known to his friends as "old moneybags," entered the jackpot drive as the nation's top money winner with $26,223. Ferrier is second with $16,246, followed by Jim Demaret, with $14,676, and Mangrum with $12,855.

Most favorites agree that the winning score will be around 280, compared to the tourney record of 269 set by Byron Nelson in 1945 and Mangrum's winning 276 of last year.

Mangrum has been posting the best practice rounds. He hammered a 68 yesterday. Patty Berg, carding a trial 71, has been made a co-favorite with Babe Zaharias in the pro women's ranks.

Jack Tierney, Michigan State's crack welterweight boxer, is a trumpet player good enough to hold down the solo chair in the college's concert band.

Without Painful Backache

As we get older, stress and strain, over-exertion, excessive smoking or exposure to cold sometimes slows down kidney function. This may lead many folks to complain of nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness. Getting up nights or frequent passages may result from minor bladder irritations due to cold, dampness or dietary indiscretions.

If your discomforts are due to these causes, don't wait, try Doan's Pills, a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. While these symptoms may often otherwise occur, it's amazing how many times Doan's gives happy relief—helps the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Get Doan's Pills today!

Senate Group To Hear General

Testimony On Korea Engulfed With Mystery

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3—(AP)—Brig. Gen. W. L. Roberts, former head of the U. S. military mission in Korea, came to the capitol today to testify before the Senate armed services committee.

In advance of the public hearing, Chairman Tydings (D-Md) made the matter an affair of great mystery. He announced the committee would meet to hear "important" testimony on Korea but refused to say who the witness would be.

Tydings would not tell even the other committee members the name of the witness.

"His secretive atmosphere touched off a welter of speculation.

Roberts' name was one of those figuring in it.

Senator Knowland (R-Calif) suggested the witness might be Roberts. He recalled that Roberts left Tokyo the day before the Communists invaded Korea.

Knowland said that some time ago he had asked that Roberts—"probably our best informed of floor on actual preparations and conditions in Korea prior to the invasion"—be called before the Senate group.

Knowland said he hadn't verified his guess with Tydings. Other committee members said they were in the dark. But that didn't keep them from making guesses of their own, covering

UNIONS WANT CONTROLS

CLEVELAND, Aug. 3—(AP)—The Cleveland Federation of Labor (AFL) has joined the Cleveland Industrial Union Council (CIO) in asking Mayor Thomas A. Burke to extend rent controls. They want them maintained here at least six months beyond the scheduled expiration of federal controls on Dec. 31.

Truman Senatorial Candidate Losing

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 3—(AP)—Emery W. Allison, who received President Truman's backing, held only a faint hope today that he still might edge out Thomas C. Hennings, Jr., for the Missouri Democratic senatorial nomination.

Hennings' nomination was virtually certain.

With only 36 precincts not tabulated, Hennings, a former U. S. representative, led by 4,372 votes in the unofficial count of Tuesday's primary election.

Allison, a state senator, congratulated Hennings but said there still was a "possibility the absentee ballots might prove him the winner." Hennings claimed victory.

French Debate Sending Troops Into Korea

PARIS, Aug. 3—(AP)—French government leaders are debating sending a "token battalion" of troops to fight under the United Nations flag in Korea, a spokesman said today.

French sources said the main obstacle to dispatching Frenchmen to Korea is France's "own dire need of military strength in Asia."

France has been fighting a guerrilla war for five years against Communist-led troops in Indochina, and has some 140,000 troops stationed there.

Junior Legion Beats Zanesville Team 7-5

Salem's Junior Legion baseball team won 7-5 this morning over Zanesville in the state Legion tournament at Columbus, with Bobby Theiss pitching five hit ball.

Salem pounded out seven hits. They remained in the tournament along with four other teams. This afternoon they play the defending state champions, "Cincinnati." One team will be eliminated. Bob Coy is scheduled to pitch.

Innocence Pleaded In Conspiracy Charge

NEW YORK, Aug. 3—(AP)—Pleas of innocent were entered today by a chemical engineer and his woman business associate to an indictment charging them with conspiracy in connection with an atomic spy ring for Russia.

The two, the latest arrested in the government's atom spy search, were Abraham Brothman, 36, and Miriam Moskowitz, 34. Their arrest last week-end brought to six the number of Americans seized thus far as alleged accessories in the espionage ring in which British atomic scientist Klaus Fuchs was a key figure.

Federal Judge T. Hoyt Davis set Sept. 11 as the day for fixing a trial date. The court refused to reduce the $25,000 bail for each defendant, despite a 28-minute plea by counsel.

Common Pleas Court On Summer Schedule

LISBON, Aug. 3—Common pleas court sessions slowed down today for the summer and no more cases will be tried during this term of court, Judge Joel H. Sharp announced.

However, Judge Sharp will be on the bench on Mondays for the remainder of the month to hear any motions and demurrers pending. The court will be in complete recess from Aug. 28 until the new term of court opens on Monday, Sept. 18.

With the opening of the new term of court the grand jury will be impaneled for investigation of a growing list of criminal matters now awaiting its attention. Foremost is that of Eva Tiller of East Liverpool, charged with murder in the fatal stabbing of Edna Wheeler and the stabbing of her husband, Samuel Wheeler, June 28 in East Liverpool.

Other criminal matters, totaling 16, include charges of trespassing, malicious destruction of property, breaking and entering, petty larceny, carrying concealed weapons, enticing a minor female, fraudulent check and auto theft.

General Rise Expected In Nation's Tire Prices

AKRON, Aug. 3—(AP)—Tires are going to cost more pretty soon.

General Tire & Rubber Co., already has raised the price of passenger and farm tractor tires five per cent and truck tires seven and a half per cent. Industry sources confidently predicted today the rest of the rubber firms will tack on similar increases.

This was the third price increase on tires since May. The reason, said General Tire, is the zooming crude rubber market. Most tubes will remain the same price, because the popular types are made of synthetic rubber.

However, some tubes made of natural rubber were raised in price from 10 to 20 per cent at General Tire.

Steubenville Truckers End Week-Long Strike

STEUBENVILLE, Aug. 3—Some 100 truck drivers of the AFL-Teamsters Local 428 returned to work today, ending a week-long strike that idled about 4,000 building trades workers here.

A wage agreement was reached last night at a meeting with federal conciliator William Powell of Cleveland. The union was granted 6 1/2 cents increase of hourly pay, raising rates to $1.60. It withdrew a demand for time and a half pay for all work over an eight-hour shift.

Sale of Gas Company Properties Planned

The purchase price would be more than $3,231,000.

The Natural Gas Co. of West Virginia has facilities in Washington and Green counties in Pennsylvania and Ohio and Marshall counties in West Virginia.

Hearing On Turnpike Is Held In Columbus

COLUMBUS, Aug. 3—(UP)—The Ohio Turnpike Commission holds a public hearing here today on the proposed route of the state's super-highway across northern Ohio.

An appeal by Cleveland officials, included Mayor Thomas A. Burke, that the route be moved closer to the state's biggest city was expected to highlight the hearing.

State Highway Director T. J. Kauer said, however, that the Cleveland group would have to provide some "pretty convincing arguments and facts" to convince him the route should be changed. The proposed route runs across the south edge of Cuyahoga county.

Mr. Kauer and consulting engineers proposed a route running from the Pennsylvania border, near the end of the Penn state turnpike, south of Warren, Cleveland and Lorain, north of Elyria, south of Sandusky and north of Fremont and Wauseon to the Indiana line.

isolate and cut up the Communist forces at the end of their long supply lines. The most vulnerable Red force would be the Fourth division. It is in the deep south at Chinju.

But there is far from enough strength yet for the United Nations forces to embark on any real counter-offensive. There is not enough manpower to exploit break-throughs. But the time appears near when the Communist steamroller momentum, with the advantage of surprise assault against ill-prepared and meager opposition, will be checked.

The psychological effect on the North Korean forces of missing the chance for quick victory will be important.

Short on Supplies
Already there is evidence that supply and arms shortages are hurting the Reds. This is particularly true in the far south where their supply line is most extended.

Reinforcements arrived at a time when a dangerous fight was going on to hold the narrowing perimeter around Pusan.

The time necessary for their arrival was bought by the holding action of the hard-hit troops of the 24th, First Cavalry, and 25th divisions.

Snowflake Pudding Make Tasty Dessert

AS LIGHT as a floating cloud and as fragrant as the blossoming pears is this snowflake pudding. It combines a fluffy gelatin custard with canned or fresh Bartlett pears and coconut, to make a dessert that is a perfect ending to any meal. It can be prepared well in advance of the meal and is served chilled.

To toast coconut, spread it out thinly in shallow baking pan. Place in moderate oven (350F.) to toast until delicately browned.

Stir coconut or shake pan often to toast evenly.

SNOWFLAKE PUDDING

1 1/4 cups milk
1/3 cup sugar
Dash of salt
2 egg yolks, slightly beaten
1 tablespoon gelatin
1/4 cup cold water
2 egg whites, stiffly beaten
1 cup shredded coconut
1 teaspoon vanilla
8 fresh or canned Bartlett pear halves, well drained
1/2 cup coconut, toasted

Combine egg yolks and milk in top of double boiler. Add sugar and salt and cook over hot water until mixture coats spoon, stirring constantly. Combine gelatin and 1/4 cup cold water in mixing bowl; Mix well. Add hot egg-milk mixture and stir until gelatin is dissolved. Chill.

When slightly thickened, fold in egg whites, 1 cup coconut and vanilla. Arrange pear halves around sides and bottom of serving dish. Turn gelatin mixture over fruit and sprinkle with 1/2 cup toasted coconut. Chill until firm. Will serve 8.

Take A Hint?

A summer salad with zip calls for diced snappy yellow cheese, slivers of sweet pickles and cooked drained peas; moisten with French dressing and serve on salad greens.

To make a "different" chicken salad mix diced cooked chicken with celery, olives, diced pineapple and bananas; moisten with mayonnaise. Serve in crisp lettuce cups accompanied by brown bread and butter sandwiches and potato chips.

For a supper dessert on a hot night, children often like crisp ready-to-eat cereal with fruit, sugar and milk. Use berries in season, applesauce, or sliced bananas.

If potatoes, onions and carrots are cooked with a pot roast of beef, the menu can be rounded out with a salad of lettuce wedges and a fresh fruit shortcake.

To prepare an easy supper dish, spread mashed potato over a greased shallow baking dish or pie plate, top with well-seasoned flaked fish and another layer of the mashed potato. Bake in a moderate oven for about 20 minutes, or until top is puffy and lightly browned.

Stuffed celery, cut in half-inch crescents and served on water-cress with French dressing, makes a delicious salad to accompany a platter of cold meat. For the celery stuffing mix cream cheese with blue cheese and season with Worcestershire sauce.

Add a little molasses to the dipping mixture when you are

Try This One-Dish Oven Meal

By GAYNOR MADDOX

ONE-DISH oven meals simplify summertime cooking. To make certain your one-dish meal has enough nutritive value and flavor appeal, add cheese and milk to the other ingredients. All dairy foods, now in abundant supply, are rich in essential food values.

Eggplant Parmesan (Serves 6)

Tomato Sauce:
Four T. butter
1 onion chopped fine
1/2 c. chopped celery
1 T. chopped parsley
1 small bay leaf
1/4 t. thyme
1/2 T. flour
1 T. sugar
4 c. tomatoes
1 can tomato paste (6 ounces)
Salt and pepper to taste
1 basil leaf.

Melt butter in skillet. Add onion, celery, parsley, bayleaf, and thyme. Cook until onion is transparent. Stir in flour and sugar and blend until smooth. Add tomatoes, tomato paste, salt, pepper and basil leaf. Cook, tightly covered, for 60 minutes over low heat.

Eggplant: One large eggplant. Peel eggplant. Slice in very thin strips. Fry in butter until golden brown.

To combine: Fried eggplant, cooked tomato sauce, slices of American cheese, grated Parmesan cheese.

Place eggplant in glass casserole dish alternately with layers of sliced cheese and tomato sauce. Top generously with grated buttered 2-quart casserole. Beat cheese. Bake 15 to 20 minutes in eggs slightly, add milk and sea-moderate oven (375 degrees F.). This one-dish meal also adds cheese, one of the most popular dairy foods, to build up protein value.

Ham and Cheese Fondue (Serves 4-6)

One small onion, chopped fine
2 T. butter
1 c. cubed ham
2 c. grated cheddar cheese
10 slices bread, cubed
3 eggs
2 1/2 c. milk
1 t. Worcestershire sauce
1/2 t. dry mustard
1 t. salt
1/4 t. pepper.

Brown chopped onion in butter. Combine ham and cheese, brown onion and bread cubes. Place in sonings. Pour over bread cube mixture. Let stand 30 minutes. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for 35 to 40 minutes or until puffy and golden brown.

A good trick to remember when you're sewing buttonholes in flimsy material: first rub a little library paste on the wrong side of the fabric. Makes for easier handling and helps you keep a grip on the flimsy stuff.

To insure best results in re-dyeing any garment, make certain the item is absolutely clean before starting.

Soak that scorched pie-plate in a strong solution of borax and water to restore its just-like-new shine.

½ teaspoon paprika
1 teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper

Brown well on all sides, remove from top of stove and pour sour cream over chicken. Set pan in preheated oven, 375 degrees, moderately hot, and leave for ½ hour. with hot fluffy rice. Serves 6.

BROILER CHICKEN, DE LUXE

1 young plump chicken
1 lemon
2 teaspoons salt
¼ teaspoon black pepper
½ teaspoon paprika
Melted butter or margarine
Granulated sugar
Split chicken in half, clean thoroughly and wipe as dry as possible. Breaking joints and removing wing tips makes chicken easier to manage on the plate. Rub entire surface of chicken with cut lemon, occasionally squeezing lemon slightly in order to obtain a sufficient quantity of juice. Sprinkle with salt, pepper and paprika mixed. Coat well with melted butter or margarine and sprinkle lightly but completely with sugar. Lay chicken on broiler pan, without rack, skin side down (flatten as much as possible) and set under broiler as far from heat as possible. Leave there for 10 minutes to allow seasoning to penetrate chicken. At the end of this time it will begin to brown slightly and may be moved up so it is 4 inches from heat. Broil slowly, turn occasionally and baste to insure even browning.

A 2-pound chicken, dressed weight, will need approximately 35 minutes to cook evenly and is done when meat on thickest part of drumstick cuts easily and there is no pink color visible near the bone.

Cook Beef Liver Italian Style

GOOD Italian cooks use budget cuts of meat to produce wonderful eating. So let's look into the new Talisman Italian Cook Book to get their know-how.

The Talisman is an English translation of the Standard Italian cook book. All measurements, terms and instructions have been adapted to American usage.

2 tablespoons flour
1/4 cup butter
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
1 tablespoon butter
2 teaspoons lemon juice

Dredge liver in flour. Place 2 tablespoons olive oil, garlic and sage leaves in frying pan, add liver and fry 4 minutes on each side. Add salt and pepper and remove liver from pan. Add one tablespoon olive oil and tomato puree to pan, cook one minute. Return liver to pan, cook 3

Fried Liver in Sweet-Sour Sauce (Serves 4)

1 egg, beaten one minute with fork
4 tablespoons bread crumbs
4 tablespoons butter
1 tablespoon sugar
4 teaspoons lemon juice

Add one tablespoon butter and sugar to frying pan and cook very slowly until sugar is melted. Remove from fire, add lemon juice, mix well, return liver to pan and turn in sauce until well covered on both sides. Serve immediately. (NEA Service)

FLUFFY STRAWBERRY HEARTS

1 package any red flavored gelatin
2 cups very hot water and fruit juice
1/2 cup crushed strawberries (use frozen berries that have been defrosted.)

Method: Dissolve the gelatin in the hot water and fruit juice. Chill until slightly thickened. Place in bowl of ice water and whip with rotary egg beater until fluffy and as thick as whipped cream. Fold in strawberry pulp. Turn into individual heart molds. Chill until firm. Unmold and serve with whipped sweetened cream.

Snake oil is wonderful stuff!

"Just try it once, dear friends, just try it once and you'll never be without it. For nervousness, for upset stomach, for all types of aches and ails, for building the blood! It's good, my friends. It's just naturally the best!"

There's a peculiar brand of "snake oil" being peddled in America today. It's the "cure-all" variety whose sponsors talk like this: "Let the federal government solve our problems by running things. Let it take over the doctors... the railroads... the electric light and power companies."

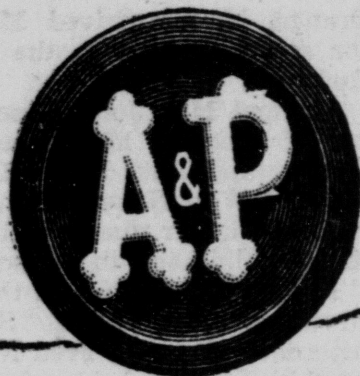

Most of these people would say they're against socialism. They just think control of this business or that industry or service by the government would benefit themselves, or their community, or maybe everybody.

What they don't realize is: when any government takes over enough things, socialism comes automatically.

Every time you let government take another control, you lose another freedom. And every lost freedom moves you closer to a socialist U. S. A. Socialism's promises might sound soothing and inviting. But so do the snake oil peddler's. Both are dangerous when people fall for them.

The business-managed, tax-paying Electric Light and Power Companies like this one are fighting creeping socialism wherever we find it. We believe it's your battle, too. Why not talk it over this week with five of your friends and neighbors? The threat of American socialism is everyone's problem because it's everyone's danger.

Are prices low on all items every day in the week?

Is the price plainly marked on each item?

Is the quality high?

'Pilots' Find New Field Ideal

30 Salemites Enjoy Model Plane Hobby

"FLYING WITH ONE foot on the ground" may be an old chestnut to some, but to more than 30 Salemites it is a thrilling hobby.

Control line flying, with a tiny motor-powered airplane on one end of a wire and an avid hobbyist on the other, received a big boost here in July with the completion of a specially designed field situated just northwest of Hope cemetery.

"It's the best field in the country," the hobbyists claim. It is shaped in a circle with a 200-foot diameter. The flier stands in the center and his plane whizzes around him on the end of a 70-foot length of extra-strength piano wire.

THERE IS no formal organization of the hobbyists but they each build their own craft, talk the same nomenclature and the oneness of purpose binds them together, whether they are seven years of age or more than 40 as some lovers of this hobby are.

Three types of control line models flown the world over are the stunt, speed, and scale crafts. The stunt planes can be flown upside down, in loops, figure 8's and wing-overs, to mention a few of the movements. At the field two or three planes are flown in formation with different people at the end of each line.

The planes are powered by motors weighing approximately one to 10 ounces. They range in size from ones which produce .025 horsepower to the new jet type with 3 1/2 h. p. Some of the larger craft have up to six motors.

They are capable of speeds up to 170 m. p. h. This would be comparable to 2,000 m. p. h. in full-size planes. The average flight is about five minutes. A special fuel, made exclusively for the models, powers the planes.

THOSE MAKING scale models seek to build the planes in exact proportion to military and commercial planes, even to an authentic paint job. For the new models of Air Force jet planes, a miniature engine, using jet principles, has been produced.

Materials for the planes cost a surprisingly low amount. Engines are priced from $4 to $15 at four local outlets.

Spectators are invited to visit the field. Thursday evenings and Sunday afternoons and evenings seem to be the favorite time for flying.

Hobbyists from Canfield, Leetonia, Columbiana, Lisbon, and Sebring often use the field and all plane builders are invited. However, non-flyers are warned about riding bicycles and horses on the field as the ground must be kept level to provide smooth landing for the planes.

Entrance is through Hope cemetery and birdmen remind everyone coming to the field that the cemetery association can close the entrance if there is any malicious destruction of property.

Lisbon

L. H. Everett, retired Center Township farmer, was honored with a family gathering Sunday on the occasion of his 90th birthday anniversary at the home of his son, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Everett in Barborton.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett, who make their home with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Fox, West Washington st., since retiring from the farm, are enjoying unusual health for their advanced years. Mrs. Everett is 83 years of age.

D. W. Dickey & Sons, operators of a feed mill at the foot of S. Lincoln ave., have announced the sale of a part of the buildings and property to the board of trustees of Center Township. The buildings will be used to house township equipment and the part of an acre adjoining the building will be used for storage of materials. Leo Hochmann, chairman of the board announced.

On the island of Gomera, one of the Canary group, the inhabitants have a language that is carried on entirely by whistling. Through its use, lonely goatherds out on the mountain peaks make conversation with other goatherds on distant peaks.

ALLEN CRAWFORD of Canfield, left, and Art Burton of 1032 E. Third st regularly fly these personally designed model planes at Salem's new control-line field near Hope cemetery.

Better Clothing For Air Force

Measuring Team To Study Men's Needs

DAYTON, Aug. 3—(AP)—The Air Force is going around measuring men these days. The idea is to build better-fitting clothing and equipment.

The aero-medical laboratory of the Air Material Command at nearby Wright Field is getting more than 600,000 individual measurements from 5,000 air force flying personnel.

These measurements will be used in deciding just what constitutes small, medium, large and very large men.

The measuring team is known as the anthropometric unit. Leaders are from the air force, members from Antioch College at Yellow Springs, O.

During the summer, the team will visit 16 air force bases. From their statistics will come a new manual for the design of flight equipment and aircraft interiors, including special gear. Some 128 separate measurements are taken on each subject.

Our Servicemen

William M. Hannay of 493 S. Broadway Wednesday received orders from the Air Corps to report for active duty at Langley Field, Va., on Aug. 17.

Hannay, an employee of the Salem Engineering Co., is a member of the Air Corps Reserve and holds a rating of private first class. He is married.

He said he will probably be assigned to photographic duty.

U. S. Troops Suffer 1,402 Casualties

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3—(UP)—An unofficial tabulation showed today that the number of American casualties in Korea has reached 1,402.

That tabulation includes a new casualty list issued by the defense Department, the 52nd since the fighting began.

It identified three killed, one died of wounds, 41 wounded, eight injured and 24 missing. One of the killed and four of the missing were airmen. The rest were army men.

The new list brought total casualty identification released here to 97 killed, 11 died of wounds or injuries, 451 wounded, 97 injured and 746 missing.

Speculators Hit By Secretary Brannan

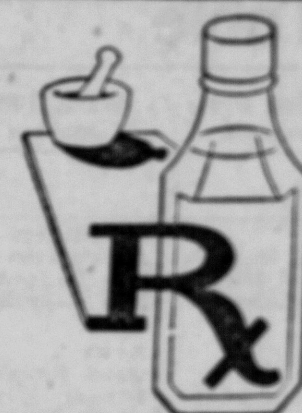

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3—(AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Brannan today accused profit-bent speculators in farm and food products of trying to cash in even at the expense of the nation's economy and war effort.

Such trading on the nation's futures market by a "considerable" number of speculators, he thought should be taken.

Brannan said, has contributed to recent sharp price advances. He called the speculation "excessive and unrestrained" and said it is threatening the country's economic stability and the war effort.

It is obvious, he said in a formal statement, that some means must be set up to stop, or at least curb, excessive speculation if the futures markets are to provide price insurance to merchandisers processors.

Brannan did not say what steps he thought should be taken.
